

3-PART SERIES

APRIL 28 | MAY 5 | MAY 19

SSPP Catholic Church is excited to bring you

Back to Galilee

Galilee is a place where the disciples first met Jesus, where they were first called to follow him. For each of us, there is also a 'Galilee', a place where the Lord said to us, "follow me." Join us for part 2 of this 3-part series as we hear from our speakers and learn about their journey with Jesus. This is an opportunity for each of us to see God's work in the lives of people that we know, but also a time to reflect on our own "Galilee."

Broken, Blessed, Blended: Part 3

Jamie Schafer's reflection, entitled
"Broken, Blessed, Blended"

will tell the story of her divorce, difficulties as a single mother and how she found the Lord in the midst of it all.

Event Details | Part 3 of 3

May 19, 2019

6:30 pm

SSPP Apostles Hall

Speaker: Jamie Schafer

Part 1 went like this . . .

Vine and the Branches

Our first series starts with Dr. Dave DenBraber as he shares his reflection on Jesus's teaching about the vine and the branches. Jesus teaches us "without me you can do nothing." (Jn 15:5).

Hear how Dr. Dave went from unbelief to belief.

. . . and Part 2 . . .

A Faithful Journey

Dave O'Mara will be telling stories from his 50 years as a parishioner at SS. Peter and Paul. He will reflect on childhood memories ranging from his First Holy Communion and Confirmation, to the great inspiration he received from his Aunt Annie and grandma. Dave will also share about the faith that sustained him in his fight against cancer, as well as his ever constant, though renewed love, for the Blessed Mother. Come and hear about Dave's journey of a lifetime through Galilee.

