Prayer Chain
 If you have a prayer request for immediate need, please call 616-522-0279, or 616-527-0438.

Pentecost was one of the great Jewish feasts. Many Israelites used to go as pilgrims to Jerusalem during these days to adore God in the Temple. Later, another motive was added to this day's celebration with the remembrance of the promulgation of the Law given by God on Mount Sinai. This was celebrated fifty days after the feast of Passover. So the material harvest which the Jews celebrated with such joy became the feast of immense rejoicing, by God's design: the coming of the Holy Spirit with all His gifts and fruits.

The Acts of the Apostles tells us, “When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.” The Holy Spirit shows Himself in those elements which usually accompanied the presence of God in the Old Testament: wind and fire.

Fire appears in Sacred Scripture as love which penetrates all things and as a purifying element. These are images which help us to understand better the action the Holy Spirit carries out in souls. “Lord, with the fire of the Holy Spirit, purify our inmost being and our heart.” Fire also produces light and signifies the new brightness which the Holy Spirit sheds on the doctrine of Jesus Christ. John 16 tells us, “When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth...He will glorify Me, for He will take what is mine and declare it to you.” Jesus had already forewarned his disciples in John 14: “The Counsellor, the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.” It is the Holy Spirit who leads us to a full understanding of the truth taught by Jesus Christ, who completed and perfected Revelation and confirmed it by divine guarantees. He sent the Spirit of truth.

In the Old Testament the action of the Holy Spirit is often intimated by the word breath. This expresses both the gentleness and the strength of divine love. There is nothing subtler than the wind, which manages to penetrate everywhere, even to reach inanimate bodies and give them a life of their own. The rushing wind of the day of Pentecost expresses the new force with which the divine love invades the Church and souls.

When St. Peter sees the multitudes of people gathered, he convinces them that this is the fulfillment of what had been foretold already by the Prophets: “And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh (Acts 2:17). Those who receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit are no longer the privileged few, like the companions of Moses or the prophets. No, these are all mankind, in the measure in which they receive Christ. The action of the Holy Spirit was to produce, in the disciples and those who heard them, such an admiration that they were all enraptured, full of love and joy!

Prayer Entrusting the Synod to Mary

O Mary, Mother of God and our Mother, as the disciples gathered around you to await the coming of the Holy Spirit, so we entrust ourselves to your protection as we seek to follow that same Spirit on the path of synodality.

Obtain for us, by your powerful intercession, grace to deepen our communion with our Lord and one another, charity to welcome full participation of all the baptized in the life of the Church, and courage to engage in Christ’s mission to the world.

Guide our bishops as they assemble this October, that they may build up the household of faith as they shepherd us along the way to eternal life in Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.
