Gratitude in Joyful Waiting

Having recently celebrated Thanksgiving, we carry that spirit of gratitude into the beginning of the new Liturgical Year. As we enter the season of Advent, we are gently called to wait with hopeful hearts and deep gratitude for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, embracing both anticipation and compassion.

St. Therese of Lisieux once shared with her sister Celine that gratitude is what most invites blessings from our dear Lord. She explained that when we thank Him for a gift, He is moved to bless us with ten more. And if we sincerely thank Him again, the abundance of graces multiplies beyond measure!

God blesses us each day, and we should open our hearts to recognize these precious blessings. Every sunrise, each breath we take, our good health, our meals, the love of family and friends, our talents and opportunities, as well as the spiritual gifts of grace, forgiveness, redemption, and salvation, are all gracious gifts from God. We must cherish and be grateful for these blessings because they are signs of divine love and care.

As the season of Advent begins, let gratitude inspire our prayers and reflections. While we await the birth of the Messiah, our witness can be reflected in our daily acts of thankfulness. The Blessed Virgin Mary herself was filled with gratitude during her anticipation of her Son's arrival, proclaiming, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my Spirit rejoices in God my Savior!"

Gratitud en la Espera Gozosa

Al celebrar recientemente el Día de Acción de Gracias, llevamos ese espíritu de gratitud al comienzo del nuevo Año Litúrgico. Al entrar en el tiempo de Adviento, estamos llamados a esperar con esperanza y profunda gratitud la venida de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, con anticipación y compasión.

Santa Teresita de Lisieux compartió una vez con su hermana Celina que la gratitud es lo que más atrae las bendiciones de nuestro querido Señor. Explicó que cuando le agradecemos un regalo, Él se siente impulsado a bendecirnos con diez más. Y si le agradecemos sinceramente de nuevo, ¡la abundancia de gracias se multiplica sin medida!

Dios nos bendice cada día, y debemos abrir nuestro corazón para reconocer estas preciosas bendiciones. Cada amanecer, cada respiro, nuestra buena salud, nuestras comidas, el amor de la familia y los amigos, nuestros talentos y oportunidades, así como los dones espirituales de la gracia, el perdón, la redención y la salvación, son todos dones de Dios. Debemos apreciar y agradecer estas bendiciones, pues son signos del amor y el cuidado divinos.

Al comenzar el Adviento, dejemos que la gratitud inspire nuestras oraciones y reflexiones. Mientras esperamos el nacimiento del Mesías, nuestro testimonio puede reflejarse en nuestros actos diarios de agradecimiento. La misma Santísima Virgen María se llenó de gratitud mientras esperaba la llegada de su Hijo, proclamando: «¡Mi alma engrandece al Señor, y mi espíritu se regocija en Dios mi Salvador!».

Knights' Corner

This Tuesday, December 2, is our business meeting, with the Rosary at 7:00 p.m. and the meeting to follow at 7:30 in the Veritas Room. This is a very busy time of year for our council and there are lots of activities to take part in. This Friday is the K of C spelling bee for our school children, and this Saturday we will be preparing pancakes and sausage for the downtown Breakfast with Santa. We can use your help if you're available!

Raffle tickets are still available at the parish office or after the weekend liturgies. Don't miss out on your chance to win!

Remember: Starting the First Sunday of Advent, November 30, the Sunday morning Mass at SS. Peter & Paul is changing from 10 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. This small change will give Fr. Eugene a bit more time to arrive comfortably and avoid any unexpected delays or tricky weather conditions. We appreciate your understanding and look forward to welcoming you just a little later for the Sunday morning Masses.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

In today's gospel, Jesus advises: "Stay awake, watch out, and pray for the strength to hold your ground" when "fearful and bewildering signs" appear threatening your family. Resist being "fearful;" because fear cripples! Instead, "pray for the strength" to be courageous.

All of the 11 families our parish was given to adopt for Christmas have been matched with 11 generous parishioner families. If you picked one of the profiles from the Christmas tree that was in the back of church, be sure to call Monica Mabe at 517-526-3201. She will give you more information about your adopted family and about the Adopt-a-Family process.

All parishioners are encouraged to bring in non-perishable food items to fill the totes that the adopted families will receive. You may place your donated food items near Mary's altar until Sunday, December 14. Distribution of the food and gift items will be on Saturday, December 20, at 10 a.m. If you have questions or would like to help in any way, please call Theresa Scholtens at 616-648-2959.

Panther Prayer Corner

Please pray that Advent will be a time of hopeful preparation, repentance, and joyful expectation for the entire Saints Peter & Paul family.

CSA 2025 – Strengthened In Christ, Responding With Joy

Thanks to the 23 people who made either an initial or an additional pledge to the Catholic Services Appeal, we have reduced our unpaid balance by another $3,100. Thank you for your response! Our parish assessment for this year is $78,253 and we still have $21,500 to go. Please make your pledge today!

Holiday Baking

Has God blessed you with a talent for baking? Would you consider baking some of your favorite holiday cookies or bread or candy for the SSPP School Annual Cookie sale? We would greatly appreciate any contributions to our efforts to raise money. The sale will begin at the school on Friday, December 5th, from 2:30 to 4 p.m. We will then transport the baked goods to the Mrs. Claus Bazaar on Saturday, December 6th, at the Ionia Middle School. Any remainders will be available at our Breakfast with Santa on Sunday, December 7th, from 8 to 9:45 a.m. in Apostles Hall.

Box Tops for Education

SSPP School needs your grocery receipts. General Mills Box Tops for Education program will award schools money for educational needs. Every time you purchase an item with the Box Tops for Education logo on it, our school can benefit from it. We are asking that you leave your receipts in the basket on the table in the back of church. They will be scanned and the rewards will be credited to SSPP.

Bilingual Advent Penance Service Wednesday, December 3, 6-8 p.m.

All are welcome and encouraged to attend a bilingual Advent Penance Service at SS. Peter & Paul Church on Wednesday, December 3, from 6-8 p.m. There will be a talk from 6-7 by some Sisters of Children of Mary, then a guided bilingual Holy Hour with music and meditations. Three priests will be available to hear Confessions.

Todos son bienvenidos y se les anima a asistir a un Servicio de Penitencia de Adviento bilingüe en la Iglesia SS. Pedro y Pablo el miércoles 3 de diciembre, de 6 a 8 p.m. Habrá una charla de 6 a 7 a cargo de algunas Hermanas de los Niños de María, seguida de una Hora Santa guiada bilingüe con música y meditaciones. Tres sacerdotes estarán disponibles para escuchar confesiones.

Faith Formation Program

All regular classes are held in our school from 9:00 to 9:55 a.m. Families, be sure to sign up for the Remind App to receive notifications about class cancellations due to inclement weather. Use Remind App Code: adgedc. For more information about Faith Formation, please contact Vanessa Booth at vbooth@ssppcatholic.com or 616-527-3610.

Health Support Group

Are you or a family member struggling with cancer or another serious health issue? No matter where you are in your health journey, we are here for you. Team members of the Ministry of Consolation will be offering Health Support gatherings on Saturday mornings. Our next gathering will be on Saturday, December 6, at 9:30 a.m. at Biggby Coffee. All are welcome. For more information, please contact Vanessa at vbooth@ssppcatholic.com.

Ministry of Consolation

Called by the healing ministry of Jesus, the Ministry of Consolation continues to reach out to parishioners and community members suffering from any type of a loss, as well as those struggling with an illness. Training for new volunteers in this ministry will be on Saturday, November 29, from 9 to 10 a.m. in the Parish Office Living Room. To learn more about this ministry, please contact Vanessa Booth at vbooth@ssppcatholic.com.

Volunteers Needed!

We will soon be preparing our new volunteer schedules for 2026. Please call the parish office soon if any of the following pique your interest.

Church Cleaners & Vacuumers

A number of teams of volunteers clean the church and sacristy, and other teams vacuum the body of the church and the vestibule. Teams rotate and serve about once every 2 or 3 months.

Church Collection Counters

Teams of 4 people count the weekend collection each Monday morning at 9 a.m. They are scheduled on a rotating basis and serve about once a month.

Care of Altar Linens

Several women currently care for the altar cloths, purificators, hand towels, and servers' albs used in church. Are you an experienced laundress who would like to help?

Advent by Candlelight

Saints Peter & Paul Church

Tuesday, December 9, 2025

5 p.m.: Holy Hour in the church

6 p.m.: Dinner in Apostles Hall

Calling all ladies! Please join us for our annual Advent by Candlelight dinner. This year, we offer some new additions to our evening. To truly embrace the Advent spirit of quiet anticipation, we will begin with a Eucharistic Holy Hour of Adoration and Evening Prayer in church. Following that, we will move to Apostles Hall for a time of socializing, touring the tables, dinner catered by Olivera's, and a guest speaker.

The cost per woman will be $20 this year. This will cover the cost of dinner and, more importantly, the rest will be donated to Pregnancy Services of Ionia County to support our local moms and babies during this season of giving.

If you would like to participate or host a table, please email Lauren Mulford by December 1st at lauren.mulford@gmail.com.

The Christmas wreaths and poinsettias that adorn our church during the Christmas season are offered to honor the birth of Christ and to glorify God. You are invited to honor your loved ones, living or deceased, by offering a Christmas Flower Memorial.

The names of those honored will be published in our parish bulletin during the Christmas season. Your donation will help to decorate the church not only at Christmas, but into the new year. The suggested donation is $10 per name.

To make an honorary or memorial offering, please pick up a request form near the main entrances to church. You can submit your request and donation in an envelope in the collection basket, or return to the parish office by December 13.
